[COMPANY NAME] KICKS UP THE HOTTEST
GAS REWARD CREDIT CARD OFFERS FOR SUMMER 2011

Credit Card Comparison Site Helps Drivers Find Best Route to Savings and Rewards

[COMPANY CITY, STATE] – With the summer travel season upon us, and already-high gas prices expected to continue rising, Americans need all the help they can get to save their hard-earned money. Some drivers may already be taking advantage of “cash back” or membership point reward offers on their credit cards when they pay for gas, but others have no idea where to find these valuable offers – or may not even know they are available.

Fortunately, [COMPANY NAME] offers consumers a one-stop web site where they can find, compare, and apply for the nation’s best available credit card offers. [COMPANY NAME] presents up-to-the-minute credit card research, informed opinions and related information, and allows consumers to search for offers by bank, benefit, or reward.

Drivers interested in this summer’s hottest gas reward credit cards can visit [COMPANY WEB SITE] right now and find more than ten specialized, high-value offers. Each offer highlights the card’s specific Gas Reward Benefit, presents easy-to-read points that distinguish each card from its competitors, displays colorful icons that illustrate the card’s benefits, and lists details about each card’s APR and annual fee.

“With gas becoming increasingly expensive, it is more important than ever that drivers educate themselves about the dramatic savings at their disposal through these special offers,” said [COMPANY CEO]. “Our site is designed to save consumers time and money by compiling this information, offering recommendations, and making the application process simple and easy.”

For example, visitors to [COMPANY WEB SITE] would learn that the web site’s current “Editor’s Choice” among Gas Reward Credit Cards is the Blue Cash Preferred card from American Express, offering $100 cash back with $500 in eligible purchases in the first 60 days; 3% cash back at gas stations (in addition to further savings at supermarkets and everywhere else); with a $75 annual fee. They would also find that the card has no limit on rewards, extended warranty, purchase and return protection, and other benefits – all in a clear, concise listing where they can apply for the card in one click.

“There's no one perfect credit card for everybody, and every summer traveler's spending habits and needs will be unique,” adds [COMPANY CEO]. “While we make recommendations, we also encourage visitors to review all offers carefully and apply for the card that fits their own particular needs.”

For more information, and for the best offers on consumer credit cards, business credit cards, student credit cards, rewards credit cards, low interest credit cards, and no annual fee credit cards, visit [COMPANY WEB SITE].
